FISCAL
September 1953GENERAL
VENDING MACHINE PROCEEDS

1. Comptroller General Decision No. B-111086, 29 August 1952 (32 CG 124), makes it mandatory that the proceeds from vending machines operated in buildings owned, operated, or leased by the United States Government, be deposited into the Treasury as miscellaneous receipts excepting only revenues derived from vending machines operated in conjunction with blind-operated concessions under the Sheppard-Randolph Act of 20 June 1936.

2. Comptroller General Decision No. B-112840, 17 November 1952 (32 CG 282), modified the initial decision to permit the proceeds from vending machines owned and operated by employee groups or associations to be used for employee general welfare activities. In every case, proper administrative approval is a prerequisite to the ownership and operation of vending machines by an employee group.

3. The modifying decision of the Comptroller General is temporary pending legislative classification of existing statutes.

4. To ensure proper compliance with applicable United States statutes as interpreted by the Comptroller General:

a. A report will be submitted through channels to the Deputy Director (Administration) by the immediate supervising official of any activity operating vending machines within or in connection with any headquarters,

or activities

controlled by CIA.

b. No employee group or association shall own or operate vending machines without receiving prior administrative approval from the Deputy Director (Administration) on his designee.

5. In recognition of the [redacted] circumstances under which 25X1

25X1 Agency offices, [redacted] and activities are conducted, the Comptroller shall make such special arrangements for the submission of vending machine proceeds by each authorized installation or concession as necessary to satisfy security requirements.

6. This Notice is not to be interpreted as indicating Agency approval or encouragement of the installation and operation of vending machines by employee groups or otherwise. At an appropriate time, Agency policy and related procedures will be set forth in Agency Regulations.
